MY HOBBIES & PASSIONS

I love music and play several instruments. Cooking meals for my family has brought me great joy since I stepped into the kitchen at 10 years old. There's nothing quite like gathering around the table with family and good food to laugh, talk and just be together. Being outdoors and hiking is my happy place and I love going on adventures with my dog Rosie-girl. I bring my camera on our adventures to capture the magical moments we share together. When I have down time, I love to pick up a good book.

When I asked my loved ones to describe me they said; capable, caring, talented, smart, adventurous and passionate about the people I love and the things I do. I think that my family got it right — I really try to live life fully and with heart. I can't wait to share all of that love and joy with a child.

MY HOME & NEIGHBORHOOD

My home was built in 2013 and offers everything a growing family could hope for. With four spacious bedrooms, an inviting movie-theater room, a large open living area seamlessly connected to a modern kitchen, it's designed for both everyday life and joyful gatherings. Outside, my beautiful pool and garden invites sunshine, laughter and long summer afternoons. The neighborhood was made for families and kids — quiet streets, friendly neighbors and several large community parks just a few minutes' walk away, where children play and families connect. My town is noted to be one of the safest communities to live in in the region and the school district is exceptional with an "A" rating from the State Education Agency. It's a place where safety, community and education come together — and one I'm excited to share with a child.

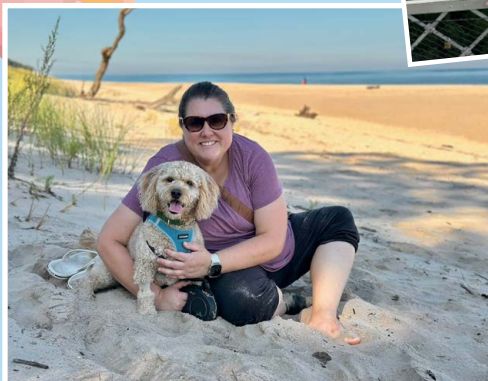

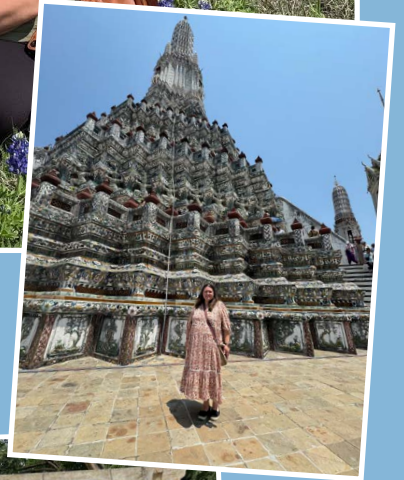

MY FAVORITE ADVENTURES

I've been fortunate to visit 65 countries, and each trip has opened my eyes to new cultures, perspectives and experiences. Traveling has been transformative, shaping how I see the world and influencing the way I live my life — with curiosity, gratitude, and an appreciation for diversity. I especially love places with dramatic landscapes and great hiking. New Zealand and Iceland are at the top of my list of unforgettable adventures. Living in the UK for my job was another highlight, allowing me to experience daily life in a different part of the world. Traveling isn't just about seeing places — it's about learning, growing and bringing those lessons home to enrich my life. I can't wait to share those lessons and future travels with the child I hope to raise with a love and wonder for the world we live in.

MY FAMILY & FRIENDS

I'm one of five children born to my parents, Tom and Cindy. I am also blessed with a large extended family that includes 12 aunts and uncles and 29 first cousins! Family gatherings are at the heart of our lives — we come together for every holiday, celebration, and milestone, cherishing the time we spend laughing until we cry, sharing stories and making memories. My family is the kind that shows up for each other in both the good times and the challenging moments, offering love, support and encouragement without hesitation. Growing up in this environment has shown me the power of family bonds and the importance of creating a loving, nurturing home — values I hope to pass along to a child of my own.

MY LETTER TO YOU

Hello,

Thank you so much for taking the time to look through my profile and get to know me a little. I can only imagine that this is a deeply emotional time as you consider what is best for your baby.

This profile is just a small snapshot of who I am. What I hope you will take away from this is that I am a family oriented, adventure loving individual who has a deep love for the wonderful people in my life. Family is at the heart of who I am and becoming a parent has always been something I've dreamed of. I'm so excited at the thought of welcoming a little one into my home and heart.

No matter what decision you make, I want you to know that I have great respect for you and the love you're showing through this process and I would be honored to provide a home filled with laughter, stability and unconditional love. Thank you again for spending a few moments getting to know my story — it truly means the world to me.
